

Upholding the Promise: Acknowledging Transfer Barriers and Leveraging Success

Presented by the SOCHE Articulation Council

Friday, Oct. 18, 2024 | 8:30 a.m.-1 p.m. ET | via Zoom

Event Program:

8:15 a.m. ET	Meeting link opens
8:30 a.m. ET	Guided Coffee Chat Grab your favorite beverage and join us for discussion about campus National Transfer Student Week activities before the conference formally begins.
8:40 a.m. ET	Opening and Welcome Conference Host: Angelique McCown , Ohio University
8:45 a.m. ET	ODHE’s Ohio Articulation and Transfer Network Updates + Q&A Presenters: Dr. Paula Compton , Dr. Candice Grant , Jessi Hart , Jared Shank , and Nikki Wearly , OATN
9:45 a.m. ET	BREAK: Pet Parade – share your pet with the group (in person or a photo)
10:00 a.m. ET	PANEL – Student Voices: Promises Fulfilled Join us as we hear from exceptional students from across the transfer and articulation spectrum. They will discuss their experiences with the transfer process, providing valuable insight into the challenges, struggles, and successes therein. The panel will begin as a facilitated discussion, but opportunity will be available for audience questions in the latter half of the session. Moderator: Rachel Fulton , University of Cincinnati Panelists: Samantha Wilt, Edison State Community College; Chance Stidham, Franklin University; Nathalia Ramirez Rodriguez, Miami University; Keith Kinner, University of Dayton; Todd Guden, University of Cincinnati
10:45 a.m. ET	BREAK: Chair Yoga with Dr. Candice Grant, OATN
11:00 a.m. ET	Concurrent Sessions (choose one at registration) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Session 1 – Best Practices in Advising College Credit Plus (CCP) Students As participation in College Credit Plus continues to grow, so does the number of credits that Ohio high school students are earning. But how can secondary and post-secondary partners ensure that those credits are more than just “random acts of dual enrollment”? What are some of the best practices for advising CCP students for future careers and transfer, especially knowing that CCP coursework can impact future financial aid? Learn how Lorain County Community College’s recently revised advising policy will help CCP students declare subplans, better preparing them for pathways in in-demand careers or transfer to specific institutions.

	Presenter: Nadia Leary, Ohio Alliance of Dual Enrollment Partnerships/Lorain County Community College Facilitator: Maureen Cooper, Franklin University • Session 2 – Just Across the River: Out-of-State Partner Spotlight While we all have great partners in-state fulfilling the Ohio Transfer Promise, this session will explore how transfer promises are fulfilled beyond our borders. Join Cincinnati State Technical & Community College and Northern Kentucky University as they highlight the variety of practical programs they offer to engage transfer-intending students. Walk away with a variety of ideas for your own institution and out-of-state partners. Presenters: Dr. Myshamil Walker, Cincinnati State Technical & Community College; Amy Danzo, Northern Kentucky University; Sara Conwell, Northern Kentucky University; and Karlyn Yocum, Northern Kentucky University Facilitator: Janeil Bernheisel, Sinclair College • Session 3 – Behind the Curtain: Manual Processes and Leveraging Technology Transfer processes can feel overwhelming! This session is a facilitated discussion focused on streamlining and enhancing the management of transfer processes. This session will delve into innovative technologies and ideas that simplify and optimize transfer operations, making them more efficient and effective. Participants will engage in a collaborative dialogue, exploring practical solutions and strategies for improving transfer initiatives. Whether you're looking to reduce manual workload or integrate new technology, this session offers valuable insights and actionable takeaways to enhance your institution's transfer management. Facilitator: Cathy Moore, Miami University Regionals
11:45 a.m. ET	BREAK: Feel free to take a true bio break and grab your lunch
12:00 p.m. ET	KEYNOTE: Meaningful Practices and Paradigms for Transfer Student Success In the ever-changing landscape of higher education, predicting the next shift is almost impossible. However, a few things are certain: enrollment is changing, institutions are challenged to adjust, and thus it is more important than ever that we deliver on our promise of student success. Transfer students are critical to that promise, and both sending and receiving institutions have integral roles to play. This keynote address will focus on the practices and paradigms that undergird supporting transfer students, as well as unpacking some of the emergent ideas in the field. Come learn alongside colleagues and contribute to our collaborative dialogue around transfer student success and what part we can all play. Presenter: Amelia Salazar, Ed.D., Vice President, Student Success, Wright State University
12:45 p.m. ET	Closing Comments Conference Host: Angelique McCown, Ohio University